

Resources on Science and Christian Faith

Digital Resource: What If Learning

This website is built around concrete examples of teachers connecting Christian faith to their teaching.

- The website overview is at: <http://www.whatiflearning.com/>
- Example specific to science education are at: <http://www.whatiflearning.com/examples/>

Digital Resource: Teaching FASTLY

Excellent teaching that embraces both faith and science requires a rich variety of ways in which they can be intertwined. This website provides examples of faith and science activities. It is designed by teachers for teachers.

- Website overview at: <https://teachfastly.com/insights/teaching-strategies/>
- Book reviews overview at: <https://teachfastly.com/insights/book-reviews/>
- Sample entries:
<https://teachfastly.com/essays/conceptual-change-its-hard/>
<https://teachfastly.com/book-reviews/god-in-the-lab/>
<https://teachfastly.com/essays/how-our-formation-frames-science/>

BioLogos Digital Resources

BioLogos invites the church and the world to see the harmony between science and biblical faith as they present an evolutionary understanding of God's creation.

- Website overview: <https://biologos.org/>
- New teaching materials in biology that combine faith and science: INTEGRATE
-Announced October 15, 2020: free downloads for a limited time only
-See: <https://biologos.org/post/teachers-and-parents-come-integrate-with-us>

Book: Learning & Teaching Scientific Inquiry: Research and Applications by James Jadrich and Crystal Bruxvoort, National Science Teachers Association Press, 2011. The book is available for $7.00 USD at <https://my.nsta.org/resource/2572>. One can download a sample chapter.